

Terms & Conditions

1. In General. The S&R Washington Award Application Form and the Terms and deadlines for the S&R Washington Award posted on the S&R Foundation website form part of these terms and conditions.
2. Right to Amend. S&R Foundation reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions for the S&R Washington Award or cancel the Award at its sole discretion.
3. Decisions are Final. The decision of S&R Foundation is final and no correspondence or other review will be entered into regarding its decision.
4. Visas. Visas, when required, are the responsibility of the Applicant. S&R Foundation, although willing to provide any information related to the S&R Washington Award that an Applicant needs, is not responsible for obtaining any visas an Applicant may need to enter the United States of America. An Applicant's failure to obtain a visa in time to comply with these terms and conditions will not excuse the Applicant's failure to comply with these terms and conditions.
5. Proper Attire for Awards Ceremony and Performances. S&R Washington Award Winners attending S&R Foundation sponsored events must wear professional attire. Men and women will be asked to wear cocktail attire to the Washington Award Ceremony.
6. Awards Ceremony. The S&R Washington Awards ceremony is generally scheduled in mid to late spring in the Washington, D.C. area. S&R Foundation will notify S&R Washington Award Winner the date of the ceremony as soon as it is finalized, and S&R Washington Award Winner is requested to reserve these four (4) days until such notice. Attendance for the entire event is mandatory for any S&R Washington Award Winner. No Award or Award money will be given to any Winner who fails to attend the entire event. S&R Washington Award Winners may be given an opportunity to speak or perform at the Awards Ceremony. S&R Foundation will set the amount of time each Winner may speak or perform, and the Winners must strictly comply with the time allotments.
7. Tax Documents. Winners must provide S&R Foundation with a completed IRS Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, or W8-BEN before receiving any Award money. The Foundation may be required to withhold tax from the Award money of any Winner who does not provide a completed Form W-9 or W8-BEN.

8. Publicity and Promotion. For marketing purposes, S&R Washington Award Winners must supply an updated photo of himself or herself and biography prior to the Award Ceremony. S&R Washington Award Winners agree to comply with any reasonable request by S&R Foundation to take part in publicity and promotional activities surrounding the S&R Washington Award.
9. Report. S&R Washington Award Winners must submit a written report to S&R Foundation by December of the year following the year in which the Award is received describing how he or she used the Award to advance the mission of S&R Foundation through his or her fine art, music, drama, dance, photography, or film.
10. Privacy Policy: We collect information about you to process your application, manage your account, and to update you regarding news related to the S&R Foundation and Washington Award. We will not distribute or sell your information to third party vendors. By agreeing to the Terms and Conditions, you agree to this collection and retention of this data.

To opt out at any time, please email inquiry@sandr.org

Please note that the S&R Washington Award Committee will not return entry materials nor assume responsibility for material submitted.